of the new weaves and materials in the new shades.

SOCIETY

THE week past has been marked by the announcement of several prominent engagements, and there are rumors in the social atmosphere of Richmond and Virginia of many more to come in the near future. Indeed, September and October will witness many announcements of interest, and the brides of the coming season are already busy with their trousseaux.

The engagement of Miss Ellen Bruce, of Halifax county, to Richard T. Crane, son of Charles R. Crane, United States minister to China, is of especial interest in Richmond, where Miss Bruce has spent much time with her brother, Malcolm G. Bruce, at the Chesterfield.

Her home, "Berry Hill," is one of the handsomest places in Southside Virginia. An early September wedding will be that of Miss Janet Campbell Stephenson, of Harrisonburg, and Major Charles S. Roller, of Fort Detrick, the wedding to take place early in September.

Miss Rena Singleton Carlton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil S. Carlton, of 117 East Cary Street, this city, and William N. Kinney, of Covington, will be married in the early autumn, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Paulatt, of Farmville, Va., have just announced to their friends the engagement of their daughter, Miss Alice Edmunds Paulatt, to Geoffrey Creyke, of Washington, D. C.

The marriage is to be celebrated in October. Miss Keane and Mr. Montague Lead German.

A brilliant German was given by the Bon Air Country Club last Thursday evening.

Neville Montague led with Miss Tip-ple Keane. There were favors for five figures, one of the most beautiful being American Beauty roses with long stems for the girls and boutonnières to match for the men.

Sixty sprays of cherry blossoms made one figure very suggestive of spring, and another unique figure, appropriate to the country, consisted of stalks of real corn with long ribbon-like leaves and tassels, held by the men to make arches, through which the girls tripped merrily, wearing white paper bonnets.

Those dancing were: Misses Janine Talcott, Cary Talcott, Lily Cary, Nellie Payne, Bessie Smith, Marion Montague, Virginia Miller, Eliza Christian, Marion and Sarah Poor, Sarah Talcott, Miss Sime, Misses McCloy, Cameron, Lorraine, Mesdames Lloyd, Mac Bullington, Watkins, Fairlie Cooke and Howell; Messrs. Percy Montague, Basil Jones, Keith Jones, Dick Smith, Wirt Durett, Paul Christian, Alexander Weddell, John Cary, Fairlie Cooke, Will Morse, Bates McClure, John Phillips, Neal, Muse, Howell, Bellamy, Price, Camp, and Carlington.

Besides those dancing there were present: Misses Lillian Cook, Maria and Harriet Cooke, Hallie and Eva Talcott, and Nellie McCloy; Colonel and Mrs. Talcott, Mrs. Christian and Mrs. T. L. P. Cooke.

At Locust Hall.

Miss Rosa Trant and Miss Essie Gates, of this city, have just left Rockbridge Alum Springs, where they have had a charming stay of several weeks, and are now members of a house party at Locust Hall, the home of Mrs. John Armistead McCraw, in Halifax county.

Other guests in Mrs. McCraw's attractive home pre: Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Page Vaden, of Manchester; Hugh Williams, of Lynchburg, Va., and John Spotswood Hickson, of Halifax.

Returns from the West.

Miss Annie Hulcher, who has been traveling in the West since June, returned to Richmond Thursday, and is now with her brother in his home at 202 Park Street.

Miss Hulcher has been traveling with a party of twelve friends, and has visited many places of interest in Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana. One very pleasant feature was a twenty-five mile trip down the Ohio River in the mail boat, Louisville, to St. Louis, thence to Cincinnati. Miss Hulcher left the other members of the party in Cincinnati and came from there on to Richmond.

At Country Club To-Day.

The Sunday vespers have been one of the most helpful and interesting features of the Woman's Christian Association Country Club life. A number of splendid and suggestive talks have been made by speakers of thought and wide experience, which have been enjoyed by all those who have attended the services.

On last Sunday Dr. Evans delivered a very helpful address on "Character Building," defining clearly the most womanly characteristics. To-day Rev. D. T. Merritt, pastor of the Highland Park Methodist Church, will bring a message to the young women. Vocal music will be furnished by Mrs. Henry Garber and Miss Viola Discont, both from the choir of Broad Street Methodist Church.

Colonel W. H. Chapman, wife and daughter, Miss Mary, have gone to Washington, and thence to Front Royal, to attend the reunion of the Mosby Rangers. Mrs. Chapman and Miss Chapman will visit Luray before returning to the city.

Misses Krug Entertain.

A delightful fruit supper was given last Wednesday night by Misses Lizzie and Rosa Krug.

Games, music and dancing filled the evening with pleasure for the guests, including Miss Helen Sorg, Miss Mary Lynham, Miss Lella Leftwich, Miss Louise Leftwich, Miss Katie Hart, Miss Gertrude Krug, Miss Katie Krug, Miss Martha Ballard, Miss Grace Levey, Miss Ethel Fowler, Miss Lottie Lawman, Haskins, Garrett, William Dunn, Willie Doggett, Clarence Leftwich, Linwood Rowlett, Curtis Wash, Garland Fowler, Herbert Richardson, Frank Groves, Henry Miller, Vernon Williams, Leslie Lawman and Mr. and Mrs. Levy. Mrs. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. David Krug, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. F. S. Chesterman, Mrs. Leftwich, Mrs. H. H. Hart and Mrs. Krug.

Misses Erwin in House Party.

Miss Edith Ayslop is entertaining a delightful house party at Willoughby Beach in honor of the Misses Erwin. Those enjoying Miss Ayslop's hospitality are: Misses Mary and Addie Erwin, of Richmond; Miss Nellie May Ely, of Victoria, Va.; Miss Annie Woodley, of Elizabeth City, N. C.; Miss Lennie Hyslop, of Norfolk; Messrs. Jason Bell, Oscar Kerebek, Harry Vaughan, Hill, Holloman and Lee Hyslop and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hyslop.

For Miss Pond.

Miss Sadie Gary entertained recently in West Point in honor of Miss Annie Pond, of this city, who has been her guest. Twenty-four guests were present at the watermelon feast held in the grape arbor on the lawn, lighted by Japanese lanterns.

In and Out of Town.

Mrs. Thomas Green Faulkner and little son, Master Thomas Green Faulkner, Jr., who have been for the past six weeks with Mrs. Faulkner's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Charles James Terrell, at their home in upper Hanover county, passed through Richmond Friday en route for Boydon to be sometime with Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Faulkner in their home there.
